Pierce's Favorite Prescription Br. Pierce's Favorite Frescription is the outgrowth, or result, of this great and valuable experience. Thousands of testimonials, received from patients and from physicians who have tested it in the more aggravated and obstinate cases which had ballied their skill, prove it to be the most wonderful remedy ever devised for the relief and cure of suffering women. It is not recommended as a "cure-all," but as a most perfect Specific for women's neculiar ailments.

As a powerful, invigorating tonic, it imparts strength to the whole system, and to the womb and its appendages in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," run-down," dobilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, samstresses, "shop-girls," house-keepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally. Dr. Flerce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening mervine, "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, iritability, exhaustion, prostration, hysteria, spasms and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly stendant upon functional and organic disease of the womb. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

From our regular correspondes: WASHINGTON, Jan. 20th, 1889.- The A REVIEW OF LIVING SUBJECTS BY THE statement said to have come direct from General Harrison, to the effect that the members of his Cabinet would not be announced before the fourth of March. has stopped, to a great extent here, speculation on that very interesting subject.

A delegation of thirty Virginians pass ed through here last week enroute to In dianapolis to urge the claims of General Mahone for a cabinet position. There was a report, but it lacked verification. that the delegation carried a letter from Senator Sherman endorsing Mabone. Gen. Harrison appoint Mahone to a cabinet position.

The Senate investigation into the workings of the office of the Supervising Architect of the Treasury has already brought to light a rather queer state of affairs. The law has been boldly violated in a number of instances, and if rumors are to be trusted the half has not s of vet been told.

Governor-elect Hovey, left last week for his home in Indiana. His absence is deeply regretted by many friends here. If he makes as good a governor as he has a Representative, Indianians will have nothing to complain.

Those ridiculous old rules by which the House of Representatives is governed are chargeable with another exhibition of tomfoolery which exceeds everything that has preceded it. The deadlock which existed a week ago as the result of an attempt to change one of the rules, was broken early last week by a vote of the House to recommit the resolution proposing the change to the com mittee on rules. As soon as this result was announced Representative Weaver of Iowa, took the floor and stated that he would not allow anything else to be done until the House had disposed of the Oklahoma bill. Many members smiled at the dictatorial manner of the gentleman from Iowa in making this annencie. but the smiles all disappeared as day after day Mr. Weaver proved his ability thanks to the rules, to stop all legisla

This went on for four days, and would probably have gone on until the fourth of March, had not Speaker Carlisle made a bargain with Mr. Weaver which brought the farce to an end. Seventeen of the larger cities have adopted the Wood local option law and grant no licenses for saloons. Six years ago there were about 5,000 saloons in operation in the state; now there are less than 3,000, of which St. Louis alone has 2,000. Kansas City has 500 saloons and St. Joseph 125. The largest number in any remaining city is found in Sedalia, which has 27 licensed places where thirsty may look upon "the wine when it is red." The highest license it will compare thought with the expensive required in any city of the state is $3,000, the minimum being $550. A com-$3,000, the minimum being $5.50. Sidney Luska, who was introduced to the public by Cassell & Company, will publish within a few days and through this house, a volume of short stories that for plot and action are equal to any of his longer romances. Mr. Luska, unlike most writers, did not make his bow through a valume of short stories. The first book that he wrote, "As It was Written," was a full fledged novel, and his short stories do not appear until after he has won his spurs as a writer of fiction. The title of the new volume is, "A Latin-Quarter Courtshop."

And for the Democracy.

THE SUN believes that the campaign for the election of a Democratic Congress in 1890 and a Democratic President in 1892 should begin on or about the fourth of next March. The SUN will be on hand at the keginning and until the end of the most interesting and important political conflict since the war, doing its honest utmost, as ever, to secure the triumph of the Democratic party and the permanent supremacy of the principles held by Jefferson, Jackson, and Tilden.
